

Dear Sirs:

I feel that Morse Code is a requirement that should be eliminated from Ham radio testing.

The majority of people do not use this mode of communicating and it reduces the number people who are willing to become ham operators because of the Morse testing.

Now is a time that we need more ham operators to assist with homeland security.

Please eliminate the Morse Code requirement.

Thank you for your time.

of